

HONORING MOTHERS, HELPING OTHERS

Tomorrow is Mother's Day. Give a gift in honor of the women who inspire you.

It's our mission at Share & Care to help the most marginalized members of society, and with the harrowing COVID-19 crisis unfolding in India, our work is now more critical than ever.

Want to see what other members of our community are saying about this crisis? Scroll to see their messages below.

Just days ago we announced a new, one million dollar disaster relief package. Our immediate response will help 400,000 people get vaccinated, equip thousands of families with grocery and health kits, and provide medical supplies and equipment to fight the virus. These efforts are already taking place thanks to our on-the-ground partner NGOs in India.

Since our announcement, many donors — who represent multiple generations and come from different countries and backgrounds — have contributed funds in memory of those lost. Others have given in tribute to family members or in honor of special occasions. We are thankful to ALL who have donated. Will you join us in the monumental task of combating this disaster?

Messages from our community:

“I have many friends with family in India and I know what a challenging time this is. A colleague’s mother in India just passed away, a year after her father passed. While I do not know the name of her mother, this is in her honor.”

“In honor of my grandma and everyone in India affected by this horrible situation. Besides a handful of my family living in the U.S., the majority are still in India. It’s heartbreaking what’s going on and would love to help any way I can!”

“In honor of my grandmother, the most successful businesswoman I know.”

“This donation is in memory of a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother of a very dear friend of mine, who passed away this week after a long battle with lymphoma.”

“I traveled through India 30 years ago and have never forgotten the beauty of the country, and the kindness and patience of the people, even in the face of hardship. Much hope for the future after this terrible pandemic.”
