Take the Wheel: Drive to Erase Inequality

Though we live in a rapidly evolving world, we believe there are some things that do not change — such as our responsibility to help one another, particularly those at the bottom of the socioeconomic ladder. At this year's gala, we will celebrate our achievements from the past 37 years while also keeping our hearts on the road and mission ahead: to erase inequality in India and around the globe, one family at a time.

All proceeds benefit the Share & Care Foundation's mission to create long-term impact and sustainable change for deserving women and children living in remote rural India.

We look forward to coming together for an evening of celebration on September 21. Will you join us?
