Women Empowerment Program Spotlight: Protecting Children From Abuse

Our Women Empowerment Signature Program partners with Arpan, an NGO committed to ending childhood abuse by conducting in-school trainings to prevent abuse, intervening when children are in danger, and offering counseling to victims. Two beneficiaries share how their lives were impacted by this partnership in the following story and video:

A seventh-grade student experienced inappropriate behavior from her cousin, who regularly visited her home. She was afraid to speak up, worrying the adults in her life wouldn't believe her or would blame her for the abuse. After taking Arpan's Physical Safety Education course at her school, she had the courage to overcome her fears and seek help from her sister.
