

HAPPY Mother's DAY

This Mother's Day, we at the Share and Care Foundation invite you to join us in a celebration of generational empowerment. It's a journey that starts in the heart of one family and extends its reach globally, enriching the lives of countless women and children. Hear from Dr. Premal Thaker and her daughter, Vaishali, on the impact of maternal guidance.

A Mother's Vision

— Dr. Premal Thaker

Teaching charity to children is very important; as parents we need to develop our children to have a social consciousness that benefits the greater good of humanity. As a mother I want my daughter to understand that not everyone has the same opportunities educationally and financially — that it is our duty to help others since we all benefit when everyone works together. Our children are our future and need guidance to learn acts of kindness and generosity.

A Daughter's Gift

— Vaishali

My name is Vaishali and I am in fourth grade in St. Louis. My mother and I were giving to charity like we do every year and my mom and I have given to the Share & Care Foundation previously. My mom told me to read all of the six programs and to choose three of them to give to. So I chose healthcare, women's empowerment, and kids' education. I chose these programs because when I read these stories they really inspired me to think of them in need of education, healthcare, and women's rights. I am lucky to have so many opportunities and wanted the money to go to these causes in India. I hope one day to visit there, as I was born in the USA.
