About the Artist

Pandita Archana Joglekar is an actress, dancer, choreographer, and acclaimed Kathak guru. She has worked in films and television in multiple languages, including Hindi, Marathi, Oriya, Bangla & Tamil and with superstars like Rajinikanth, Aamir Khan, and Rekha.

Born a child prodigy trained by her mother, Asha Joglekar, Archana is one of India's finest Kathak dancers. She has performed worldwide and at music and dance festivals throughout India, including being the first Kathak artisan to perform at the Elephanta Festival in Mumbai. She founded the Archana Arts dance school in New Jersey and is committed to preserving Indian classical dance.

About the Show

Experience a captivating tribute and celebration of women's strength, resilience, and potential as performed through Kathak, a classical dance style known for its intricate footwork and graceful hand movements. Rainbow Colors of Women tells the story of women's roles as mothers, sisters, daughters, partners, wives, and friends, accompanied by music genres ranging from classical to folk to Bollywood.

About Share & Care

We believe that access to education, gender equality, and healthcare is a fundamental human right. Our mission is to create a world that gives women and youth in India the opportunity to rise out of poverty and improve their quality of life in an ever-changing world of new and improved technologies and innovation.
