UNITED IN PURPOSE BOUNDLESS IN IMPACT

Annual Gala 2025

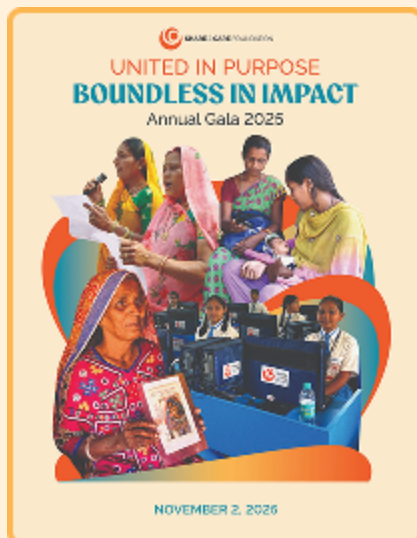

Dear Share & Care Family,

What an extraordinary evening we shared! More than 500 of you joined us Sunday, November 2, for our 2025 Share & Care Gala “United in Purpose, Boundless in Impact,” held at JMPAC in East Brunswick. The energy, warmth, and spirit in that room was truly unforgettable.

Together, we raised an amazing $600,000 — a testament to this community's commitment to our shared mission.

Our featured entertainment, “Rainbow Colors of Women,” was a stunning tribute to Nari Shakti — the power of women — beautifully told through the grace and artistry of Kathak dance. Pandita Archana Joglekar, one of India's most celebrated Kathak dancers, led her talented dance ensemble in a performance that touched every heart in the audience. The ensemble of local dancers, many still in high school, demonstrated how Kathak's centuries-old tradition remains vibrant in modern Indian culture.

Beyond the captivating performance, the evening was filled with meaningful connections. Patrons and Share & Care members exchanged ideas about our projects, caught up on life's journeys since we last gathered, and discussed India's remarkable transformation. Truly heartening was seeing so many young people step forward to be part of our mission.

Don't miss the Gala souvenir book! We celebrate our journey over the past year with features on the inspiring fundraisers led by the Kids4Kids Committee, plus updates and real-life stories from our Signature Programs: Women Empowerment, Healthcare 2 Unreached, Educate 2 Success, and Educate 2 Graduate.

One patron beautifully captured the essence of the evening:

“What a gala! I enjoyed every minute of everything that was presented. I learned a lot about the true meaning of the stories of our scriptures. I was very impressed by Pandita Archanaji and the young but very talented students of hers. I felt uplifted and inspired by all the presentations and work being done by Share & Care.”

An elegantly dressed crowd of more than 500 patrons packed the house.

To our incredible volunteers whose dedication and hard work made this evening possible — thank you. Your efforts did not go unnoticed. As another guest shared:

“All your and other volunteers’ hard work showed. I truly appreciate and want to thank all the volunteers, as well as others, for their dedicated efforts.”

This gala reminded us why we do what we do: to continue our mission to create a world that enables women and youth to rise out of poverty and improve their quality of life. Thank you for being part of this journey with us.
