Happy Valentine's Day

As we celebrate this season of love, we're reflecting on a powerful truth: when you invest love, time, and resources in one girl, you uplift an entire community.

At our Oasis Saamarthya leadership camp, young women stepped forward with new confidence — ready to become role models and changemakers in their villages. Love in action is opportunity, courage, and hope.

One young participant at Oasis felt invisible, unsure of her voice. Through leadership sessions, mentorship, and a safe space to dream, she became a leader — someone who advocates for education, stands against injustice, and encourages other girls to stay in school.

When one girl rises, she brings others with her.

Community Comes Together for Kids4Kids Pickleball Fundraiser

Earlier this year, more than 60 community members joined the 2026 Kids4Kids Pickleball Fundraiser — an afternoon of lively competition and giving that raised over $15,000 for Kids4Kids initiatives. A heartfelt thank you to all of our participants, attendees and sponsors.

Champions were crowned across the Kids, Women's, and Men's divisions, while pick-up games kept the day welcoming and inclusive for all ages and skill levels. Led by Kids4Kids President Saisha Varaiya, the student committee handled everything from venue and logistics to ticketing and tournament play, earning overwhelmingly positive feedback from attendees.

One especially inspiring highlight: committee member Anya Shah donated $1,200 from a small business she started during the COVID pandemic, directing her hard-earned savings to education and women empowerment projects like the Light of Life Trust, SPRJ Kanyashala Trust, and initiatives in Malawi — an incredible example of youth leadership and compassion in action.

When you participate in or support Share & Care, you're directly connected to stories like those happening at Oasis Saamarthya. It's a beautiful chain of love: from your local community to villages thousands of miles away.

When caring individuals, community events, and life-changing programs like Oasis Saamarthya come together around a similar cause, we reach thousands of girls. That's the power of collective love.

This Valentine's, we invite you to champion a girl's education and leadership journey by supporting our programs.
